

THE KINGDOM BUSINESS
CONFERENCE

WELCOME!

You made it! There are a hundred ways you could spend your time and your money this weekend, and you've chosen to be here. That decision is powerful. You may be feeling excitement and expectancy, or perhaps it's more of a cautious curiosity. Either way, there's great news. God is here and He is passionate about speaking uniquely to you.

For this reason, we encourage you to read the statement below—an agreement between you and God—and if you are willing, sign it. This is for you alone; it won't be collected, it won't be checked. It is simply, a positioning...

THE POSITIONING AN OPEN HEART

Father, I trust you to lead me this weekend. I don't have to agree with everything that is spoken, I don't have to do what others are doing. But I will listen for your voice and I will watch for your ways.

I ask you for wisdom and revelation. Reveal your heart and your kingdom to me in greater measure. I commit to obey when you speak to me, to have courage when it is needed, and to engage with an open heart.

I trust you. Have your way in life.
